NASW

THE ADVANTAGE

Social workers are our members—more than 130,000 of them. They work in mental health and health care, in child welfare and gerontology, in management and in private practice. They are on the front lines and behind the scenes. They are in large cities and in small communities. There are 56 NASW chapters located across all 50 states and Washington, DC, New York City, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands, and Guam. Wherever you are, they are.

Advertise with NASW and reach the largest network of social workers in the world!

THE ACCESS

The National Association of Social Workers is the largest organization of professional social workers in the world. NASW—can give you access to their purchasing power through our highly valued publications and our membership mailing list.

NASW Press, a division of NASW, is a leading scholarly press in the social sciences. NASW NEWS and Social Work are NASW's signature publications and reach each of the association's more than 130,000 members numerous times throughout the year. In addition, NASW Press publishes four specialty journals that reach specific segments of the profession four times each year. NASW publications have gained prominence in the United States and abroad.

Online Advertising

Drive interest in your products and services with online advertising. The NASW Web site reaches over one million visitors per year. The Web site attracts not only its own membership, but anyone who seeks to understand what social work is and the services that social workers provide.

THE AUDIENCE

Who they are

- 96% master's degree level
- 82% female
- Median income of $50,000-$54,999
- Median years of social work experience is 16
- Median age is 46-50

Beyond the profile, our readers are employed in a broad spectrum of settings, including social service agencies, hospitals, businesses, nursing homes, managed care, criminal justice, and government. They work as administrators, case managers, supervisors, educators, private practitioners, community organizers, school social workers, employee assistance counselors, and more.

Mailing list rentals are managed by INFOCUS. Visit www.infocusnet.com for more information on NASW mailing list orders.

What they need

- Services for clients
- Continuing education opportunities
- Professional products and services
- Career development resources
- Job announcements

What they read

NASW NEWS and Social Work are the best-known and most-read publications in the social work profession.

The NASW NEWS is delivered to members monthly with the exception of August and December. Members read it to stay in touch with in-depth news and developments in social work practice, public policy, legislation and regulations, research, and NASW programs and events.

Social Work is published quarterly and is a benefit of membership, reaching every NASW member four times a year. It is widely read by practitioners, faculty, and students. Social Work is dedicated to improving practice and advancing knowledge in social work and social welfare.

NASW's four specialty journals—Health & Social Work, Children & Schools: A Journal of Social Work Practice, Social Work Research, and Social Work Abstracts—are each published quarterly and have specific subscriber audiences.

NASW members and journal subscribers are prime audiences for advertisers who want to reach the social work market.

NASW ADVERTISING POLICY

The National Association of Social Workers (NASW) reserves the right to exercise control over the content of its publications in order to fulfill its legal obligations and to implement the policies adopted by its Board of Directors. NASW reserves the right unilaterally to reject or cancel advertising in its publications for any reason. Decisions regarding the acceptance of advertisements will be informed by the principles noted below.

I. General

- a. NASW will comply with any applicable federal or District of Columbia laws.
- b. NASW NEWS and other NASW publications will not accept advertising for candidates for elective office.
- c. Advertisers bear all responsibility and liability for the content of their ads. Advertisers are cautioned to avoid content, including illustrations that may defame individuals or may be perceived as demeaning to any individual or group.
- d. Ads will not be accepted from agencies or individuals under sanction by NASW for violations of the NASW Code of Ethics.
- e. It is NASW's policy not to accept advertising for insurance products and related vendors that are not sponsored by the NASW Assurance Services, Inc.
- f. Evidence of accreditation by an accrediting body of the Council on Higher Education Accreditation must be submitted with ad placement requests for social work degree programs see [www.ed.gov/admins/finaid/accred/index.html].
- g. NASW reserves the right to reject advertisements inappropriate to a professional social work publication.

II. Liability

- a. Publication of an advertisement does not constitute endorsement or approval of any product or service advertised, or any point of view, standard, or opinion presented therein. NASW is not responsible for any claims made in an advertisement appearing in its publications.
- b. The advertiser and/or advertising agency assume liability for all ad content including text preparation and illustrations. By submitting an advertisement to NASW, the advertiser and/or advertising agency indemnify and hold the publisher harmless from and against any loss, expense, or other liability resulting from any suits including actions for libel, breach of warranty, negligence, product liability, misrepresentation, fraud, violation of privacy, plagiarism, copyright infringement, and any other claims or suits whatsoever that may arise from publication of such advertisement.
- c. NASW will not be bound by any term(s) or condition(s) that an advertiser includes on order forms or invoices unless NASW has agreed in writing to such term(s) or condition(s).
- d. Other than the return of any charge that has been paid, NASW is not liable for any alleged loss or damages if an advertisement is omitted for any reason.
- e. Advertiser claims for errors will be reviewed on a case-by-case basis with discounts offered for the advertisement in question or on the advertiser's next order provided it is determined that NASW made the error and that the error seriously affected advertising results.

III. Personnel Advertising

- a. Personnel advertising in violation of federal or District of Columbia civil rights laws will not be accepted for publication.
- b. NASW will not maintain box numbers for recruitment advertisers.

IV. Placement of Orders

- a. The placement of an order for an advertisement or advertisements constitutes an acceptance of all the rates and conditions under which advertising is sold at that time.
- b. To qualify for a multi-issue reduction, advertising must be placed on a contract basis on the terms applicable to individual periodicals. A contract starts with the first insertion. Sixty (60) days written notice is required for contract cancellation by publisher or advertiser. If a contract is cancelled, the charges for the ads placed while the contract was in force will be short-rated; i.e., the full one-time insertion rate will be applied retroactively for each ad actually placed. Advertising agency commissions and multiple-insertion discounts do not apply to classified (per line) ads.

- c. If new copy for contract ads is not received by the closing date, standing copy will be used. If usable standing copy is not available, the advertiser will remain liable for paying for the space contracted, even if NASW must substitute its own "house" advertising to fill the space. Likewise, advertisers who reserve display advertising space and do not cancel the reservation by the reservation/cancellation deadline, but who fail to provide the ad's copy/artwork in usable form per NASW specifications by the closing date, will be liable for paying for the space reserved, even if NASW must substitute its own "house" advertising to fill the empty space.
- d. NASW will provide notice of rate changes at the earliest feasible time and at least in the issue preceding the first issue to be affected. Any advertising contract ratified before a rate change is announced will be honored at the contracted rate for the life of the contract. Renewals of such contracts will be subject to the rates prevailing at the time of renewal.
- e. No cancellations will be accepted after closing dates. Advertisers who fail to notify the publisher of cancellation prior to closing date will be required to pay the full price for insertion. Cover insertion orders may not be cancelled.
- f. Current rates, dimensions, closing dates, and so forth are published in the NASW Media Kit (available on the Web at www.naswpress.org/advertisers/).
- g. NASW may require that an advertisement be labeled in some way to differentiate the paid advertising from announcements for NASW services or products.
- h. Advertising orders will not be accepted by phone. All advertising must be received in writing by the deadline date.
- i. NASW reserves the right to close deadlines early and without notice if available advertising space in an issue is sold out.
- j. Positioning of ads will be at NASW's discretion, although advertiser's preference will be met when practicable.

V. Copy

- a. Advertisements that resemble the format and layout of the periodical itself will not be accepted without the label "Advertisement." NASW reserves the right to require this label on any and all advertisements.
- b. NASW reserves the right to add its own specific disclaimer to any ad.
- c. Copy requirements, specifications and policies for each NASW publication are stated in the NASW Media Kit (available on the Web at www.naswpress.org/advertisers/).

VII. Terms

- a. The terms for all advertising charges are net 30 days.
- b. NASW reserves the right to withhold advertising for any account that has an invoice unpaid beyond 90 days.
- c. First-time advertisers are required to make full payment with their advertisement insertion order to establish credit.
- d. Visa, MasterCard, American Express, and Discover are accepted.

NASW NEWS AD MECHANICAL REQUIREMENTS

CLASSIFIED ADS

Paste the text of your ad into an e-mail and send to naswads@naswdc.org

(You may also send classified ad copy as a Microsoft Word 2010 (or higher) document attached to your e-mail. Do NOT send documents created in other programs other than Microsoft Word.)

Your e-mail must state the issue you want the ad placed in (e.g., January) and must include all contact and billing information.

BLACK-AND-WHITE DISPLAY ADS

Preferred: PDF

Please carefully observe the following guidelines to avoid common problems we encounter with PDFs. If PDFs supplied by the artwork deadline do not meet our specifications and fail to output after being placed in our layout, the policy above on payment liability despite the ad's omission will apply. If PDFs must be corrected by NASW in order to print properly on press, a 25% surcharge may apply.

- Once you have designed your ad and generated a PDF, open the PDF in Adobe Photoshop or a similar image-editing program and SAVE AS a 300 d.p.i. grayscale TIFF image. (This converts the PDF to pixels and eliminates many of the PostScript errors we encounter.)
- Then, save the TIFF image as a Single Image PDF. (This is the PDF you will send to us.)
- E-mail PDF to: naswads@naswdc.org

Most display ads furnished as PDFs will also be posted at no charge on NASW's NASW News Web site for the duration of the issue's posting (usually one month). Large PDF files (1 MB+) and PDFs that have to be converted to other formats because of printing output problems may not be posted to the Web.

Alternative: Display ad copy TO BE TYPESET:

- Supply Microsoft Word 2010 (or higher) document, using boldface and italics where desired in the final typeset ad. Fonts used in typesetting will be chosen by NASW News.
- Do NOT send documents created in other programs other than Microsoft Word (e.g., WordPerfect, Microsoft Publisher, etc.). Ensure that your Word document is virus-free.
- Display ads to be typeset cannot include art, logos, etc.
- E-mail to: naswads@naswdc.org

COLOR DISPLAY ADS

Required: PDF

Please carefully observe the following guidelines to avoid common problems we encounter with color PDFs. If PDFs supplied by the artwork deadline do not meet our specifications and fail to output after being placed in our layout, the policy above on payment liability despite the ad's omission will apply. If PDFs must be corrected by NASW in order to print properly on press, a 25% surcharge may apply.

- Once you have designed your ad and generated a PDF, open the PDF in Adobe Photoshop or a similar image-editing program and SAVE AS a 300 d.p.i. CMYK Photoshop PDF. (This converts the PDF to pixels and eliminates many of the PostScript errors we encounter.)
- Then, open the Photoshop PDF you just created in Adobe Acrobat. Select File > Save As, and save the file as an Adobe PDF compatible with Acrobat 10. (This is the PDF you will send to us.)
- E-mail PDF to: naswads@naswdc.org

Most display ads furnished as PDFs will also be posted at no charge on NASW's NASW News Web site for the duration of the issue's posting (usually one month). Large PDF files (1 MB+) and PDFs that have to be converted to other formats because of printing output problems may not be posted to the Web.

Please note: All advertisers must comply with the NASW Advertising Policy.
