

Contents

Preface.	v
Acknowledgments.	xiii
Introduction.	xvii

Part 1: A Variety of Forms of Meditation

1 Understanding Meditation	3
2 Phases of Meditation Practice and Transcendence	8
3 Research-Studied Benefits and Side Effects of Meditation	15
4 Faith-Based and Secular Meditation	35
5 The Path of Concentrative Meditation: Transcendental Meditation and Other Mantra-Based Forms.	45
6 Concentrative Forms of Breath-Based Meditation	58
7 The Path of Insight Meditation: Mindfulness	69

Part 2: A Clinical Approach to Using Meditation with Clients and Patients

8 How I Introduce Clients to Meditation	83
9 Helpful Strategies and Techniques: Before, During, and After Meditation	90
10 Breathing Properly to Promote Optimal Emotional and Behavioral Responses	108
11 Using Affirmations during Meditation: In Sports, Peacetime, and War	115
12 Meditation Strategies to Enhance Sleeping	123
13 Integrating Meditation with Key Elements of Humanistic and Gestalt Therapies	127
14 Integration of Meditation with Trauma-Focused Treatment, Cognitive–Behavioral Treatment, and Systematic Desensitization.	133

Part 3: Case Studies: Creative Applications of Meditation Strategies

15 Buddhist Gathas and Tactical Meditation to Address Life’s Challenges: Six Case Studies. 149

16 Chronic PTSD Following an Automobile Accident: The Faith Factor. 160

17 Acute PTSD Related to Arrest, Police Interrogation, and Prolonged Legal Proceedings: Severe Avoidance and Anxiety 165

18 Chronic PTSD and Severe Phobia Related to Military Service in Iraq. 170

Part 4: Continuing the Journey

19 Meditation and Prayer: A Complementary Relationship. 175

20 Enhancing Meditation: Benefits, Challenges, and Signposts 180

21 Meditation Is the Medication 186

References. 189

Appendix: How I Introduced Michelle to Four Forms of Meditation (Case Study) 211

Index 221

About the Author 227